8. TERMINATION

8.1 The Licensee may terminate this Licence by giving ninety (90) days written notice to Licensor and completing all payments due under this Licence prior to termination.

8.2 Upon the occurrence of any of the following events, Licensor may terminate this Licence forthwith by notice in writing to Licensee:-

    8.2.1 if Licensee Uses the Software in a manner which is not authorised by the terms of Licensor 's licence for the Software or if Licensee breaches any of its duties to protect the Confidential Information,

    8.2.2 if Licensee commits a material breach of this Licence which in the case of a breach capable of remedy shall not have been remedied within thirty (30) days of the receipt by Licensee of a notice identifying the breach and requiring its remedy,

    8.2.3 if Licensee shall become bankrupt or insolvent, or having a receiving order made against them, or compound with its creditors, or being a corporation commence to be wound up, not being a members' voluntary winding up for the purposes of amalgamation or reconstruction, or having an administration order made against it or carry on its business under an administrator or a receiver or manager for the benefit of its creditors or any of them.

8.3 Upon the termination of this Licence by reason of Clause 8.1 or 8.2 Licensee shall forthwith cease Using the Software and shall erase or otherwise remove the Software from internal and external storage media in each computer system in which it or they have been installed and from any of Licensee's media and shall promptly return to Licensor, or otherwise dispose of as Licensor may require, the Software and all media embodying the Software and any back-up copies and improved versions of the Software and all other documents and materials whatsoever in the possession, custody or control of Licensee relating to the Software. Licensee shall within one month of the date of such expiration or termination certify to Licensor that Licensee has fully complied with this Clause 8.3.

8.4 Each valid End User Application licence granted by Licensee prior to termination of this Licence shall survive such termination and shall continue in accordance with its terms and Licensee's obligation in Clause 8.3 shall not extend to validly licensed End User Applications in the hands of Customers.

8.5 Termination of this Licence for whatever reason shall not affect the accrued rights of the parties arising in any way out of this Licence as at the date of termination.

8.6 The obligations of the parties under this Clause 7 shall survive the expiry or the termination of this Licence for whatever reason.

9. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

Licensor warrants that the licensing of the Software by Licensee will not result in the infringement of intellectual property rights of third parties and shall indemnify Licensee against all loss and damage suffered by Licensee arising out of any claim or proceedings brought against Licensee or any sub-licensee or Customers of Licensee by any third party proprietor of such rights.

Licensee shall promptly notify Licensor of any improper or unlawful use of the Software or infringement of any intellectual property rights owned by or licensed to Licensor which comes to Licensee's notice and will at Licensor's cost provide such assistance as Licensor may require in that connection. Licensor shall have the sole conduct and shall bear the costs of any infringement claim or proceedings by or against any third party.

Licensee shall not represent in any way that it has any title right or interest to or in the ownership of the intellectual property rights of Licensor or its principals or Licensors.

Licensee agrees to indemnify Licensor from any claim for damages arising out of the use of the Software with any product not provided by Licensor if such claim would have been avoided by the exclusive use of the Software.

10. OPEN SOURCE

"Open Source" software available without charge for use, modification and distribution – is often licensed under terms that require the use to make the user's modifications to the Open Source software or any software that the user 'combines' with the Open Source software freely available in source code form. If the Licensee uses Open Source software in conjunction with the Software, the Licensee must ensure that the use does not: (i) create, or purport to create, obligations of the Licensor with respect to the Envitia Software; or (ii) grant, or purport to grant, to any third party any rights to or immunities under the Licensor intellectual property or proprietary rights in the Envitia Software. For example, the Licensee may not develop a software program using Envitia Software and the Open Source program where such use results in a program file(s) that contains code from both the Envitia Software and the Open Source program (including without limitation libraries) if the Open Source program is licensed under a license that requires any "modifications" to be made freely available. The Licensee also may not combine the Envitia Software with programs licensed under the GNU General Public License ("GPL") in any manner that could cause, or could be interpreted or asserted to cause, the Envitia Software or any modifications thereto to become subject to the terms of the GPL.

11. AUDIT

The Licensor reserves the right to audit the use of the Software to ensure licence compliance. The Licensee undertakes to make available facilities and such information as is necessary to carry out the audit.

The Licensor may at his sole discretion assign the right of audit to a third party.

12. WARRANTY

The Licensor warrants that, for a period of 90 days from delivery of the Software to the Licensee, the Software will substantially conform to the documentation, provided that it is properly used with the operating system for which it was designed.

The obligations and liabilities of the Licensor in this Licence are in place of, and the Licensee accordingly waives to the maximum extent permissible by law, all implied guarantees and warranties, including without limitation, any warranty of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose whether or not any purpose has been notified to the Licensor.

The Licensee acknowledges that:

(i) The Software has not been produced to meet individual Licensee specification;

(ii) The Software cannot be tested in advance in every possible operating combination and environment;

(iii) It is not possible to produce Software known to be error-free in all circumstances.

13. LIMIT OF LIABILITY

In no event shall the Licensor be liable for any loss of profit or other commercial damage including but not limited to special, incidental, consequential or other damage. The Licensors liability in any event shall at its option be limited to replacement or refund of the licence fee paid for the Software.

14. EXPORT

The Licensee agrees that the Software will not be exported either directly or indirectly to any country in contravention of the United Kingdom Government or United States Government regulations in force at that time.

The Licensee agrees that neither the programs nor any direct product thereof will be exported, directly, or indirectly, in violation of these laws, or will be used for any purpose prohibited by these laws including, without limitation, nuclear, chemical, or biological weapons proliferation.

15. LAW

This Licence is governed by English Law and the parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts.

16. MISCELLANEOUS

16.1 Neither party shall be in breach of this Licence if there is any total or partial failure of performance by it of its duties and obligations under this Licence occasioned by any act of God, fire, act of government, war, insurrection, prevention from or hindrance in obtaining any raw materials, energy or other supplies, labour disputes and any other reason beyond the control of either party.
